

Book of Acts – A Prophetic Witness

We present to you the notion that the Book of Acts is a prophetic witness. Our purpose is to reveal that the Book of Acts is not only merely a history book, but also foreshadows end time events in detail. We have gained these insights partly through spiritual numbers related to the order of Books in the Bible and the order of Chapters in a Book.

A summary of our prophetic interpretations of the Book of Acts is presented in two graphics at the end of this paper. The two graphics are also available on our website as a separate document.

OVERVIEW

There are 66 Books in the Bible. Acts is the 44th Book. The spiritual number 44 can be interpreted either as 'Blood Thirsty Killers'¹ (most common sense) or 'Apostles of the Mystery'² (less common).

The Book of Acts is full of examples of both misguided zealots and holy apostles!

A Blood Thirsty Killer (44) ravages God's flock like a wolf. An Apostle builds up God's flock like a shepherd. It can be the same person! Saul persecuted believers; Paul ministered to believers.

The Sword of the LORD is double-edged. The one who grasps it either smites the enemies of God, or he harms the people of God. To minister to God's people requires such humility, spiritual enlightenment, and faithfulness! The moment the Man of God slips in his holy calling, he brings danger to himself and to his hearers.

The same man can be a saint that shines God's light and then later be an agent of spiritual darkness.

Two papers we have written illustrate the grave seriousness of this phenomenon: "I am the Sinner" (the life of David) and "I Am Your Brother" (the life of Joseph)³.

It is so often the case in the Bible that God chooses to use a man to bring about a great victory then at a later time that same man becomes a channel of error, sin, and contention. Gideon wrought a great victory for God then Gideon led Israel into idolatry (by constructing a golden ephod from the booty of defeated enemies). The apostles in Jerusalem are another example of how fast leadership can regress.

All the scenes in the human drama in Acts foreshadow distant future events for both Christians and Jews. The Book of Acts (44) is itself a 'Message' (4) of the 'Mystery' (11). This paper will prove it.

The Bible student is well served to study and uncover the prophetic messages in the Book of Acts. This is especially relevant since we are living in the Last Days right now.

THE LIFE OF PAUL

Paul is David, Joseph, Moses, and Gideon in reverse. All those men began well but in the end failed miserably. Paul began as the enemy of God and finished his spiritual journey as the champion of God.

Paul was a missionary, a Bible expositor, and an unparalleled author of Scripture (twelve books in the Bible, thirteen if you count Hebrews). Those are great achievements. But Paul was more than that.

The life of Christ was cut short. Paul in a mysterious way lived out and fulfilled the ministry of Christ after his premature death, resurrection, and ascension. We will explain.

Did you ever marvel how many times Paul was stoned yet lived? How many times his enemies plotted to kill him but he survived? Shipwrecks, riots, mob beatings, and floggings – nothing could kill Paul.

The reason is Paul is a prophetic fulfillment of the scapegoat on the Day of Atonement. Paul was under the mighty hand of God's protection: his enemies might abuse him but they could not kill him.

Two goats were brought to the High Priest on the Day of Atonement. A lot was cast. One of the goats died as a sacrifice. The other goat was led out into the wilderness and set free. The High Priest placed his hands upon the head of the scapegoat and confessed all the sins of the children of Israel over him.

Christ was the sacrificial goat. He presented his life as atonement for sin on the altar (the cross of Calvary). The pairing of these two goats indicates a special connection between them. It was more than just a bond. Christ died on the cross. Paul then continued and fulfilled the life of Jesus.

Paul was the goat set free. Although he was a Hebrew, he was led away from the fellowship of Israel, and sent out into the wilderness: to preach to the Gentiles. They received the message of the good news of salvation in the name of Jesus. But to the Jews Paul was always 'Azazel' – the cursed goat.

Make no mistake: a goat is a symbol of a Hebrew. Christ fulfilled this prophecy because he descended through Mary from the line of David. The goat set free must also be a Hebrew. Paul fulfilled this prophecy. According to his testimony he was a 'Hebrew of Hebrews': the most pious Jew that lived!

It was not just the Jews who abused Paul. Barnabas had a sharp disagreement with Paul. The apostles in Jerusalem humiliated Paul (and the gospel) by asking him to shave his hair, pay his dues, wash in the purification water of the Temple, and present himself to a priest of the Jews to be cleansed!

Paul is our litmus test. Everything Paul did and said from the time of his conversion until the very end was holy and perfect. Paul was literally the Spirit of Christ in the flesh! The goat set free from sin.

We may examine the rest of the apostles and the churches in the accounts of the Book of Acts and evaluate them according to whether they agreed to Paul or opposed Paul. In this way we know whether they were in the will of God or not in the will of God.

PROPHECY REVEALED IN ACTS

How could there be an historic account full of Hebrew people and it not be steeped in prophecy?

The first four books of the New Testament recount the history of the life of Jesus Christ. Prophecy is fulfilled in three of the Feasts of the LORD⁴ described in the Law of Moses:

- Feast of Passover – Crucifixion of Christ
- Feast of First Fruits – Resurrection of Christ
- Feast of Unleavened Bread – Celebration of the Lord's Supper

The Book of Acts records history after the resurrection of Christ and also contains fulfillment of prophecy declared in the regulations concerning the Feasts of the LORD written in the Law of Moses:

- Feast of Pentecost – Birth of the Church

There are 28 chapters in the Book of the Acts of the Apostles. $28 = 4 \times 7$. Using spiritual numbers this means: Message (4) of the End (7). In other words, the book contains prophetic Messages (4) concerning the Time (7) of the End (7): the last days of the church and the last days of the Jews.

Seven Prophetic Messages (Comprised of Four Chapters Each) in the Book of the Acts of the Apostles

1. Christians - In Heaven During the Great Tribulation
2. Christians – Persecution Prior to the Rapture
3. Jews - Great Tribulation – Mid-Point of the Great Tribulation
4. Christians - Church History – Last Days
5. Christians - Church History – Cross to Last Days
6. Jews - First Half of the Great Tribulation
7. Jews - Second Half of the Great Tribulation

Why are the prophetic periods presented in this odd order? In the Old Testament chapters are not arranged in the precise future order of prophetic events either.

For example: Joseph is thrown into a pit in Genesis 37 (prophetic of the death of Christ) and the Lord destroys Sodom and Gomorrah in Genesis 18 (prophetic of judgment fire during the Great Tribulation).

A key to understanding prophetic meanings in the Bible is to look at the spiritual meaning of the number of the chapter in which they occur. The spiritual number 37 means 'Chosen Servant', so it is appropriate to find a prophecy pertaining to the Chosen Servant, Jesus Christ, in Genesis 37. The spiritual number 18 means 'Bondage' (to sin). The whole world will be in bondage to sin during the Great Tribulation when the Holy Spirit has departed: the connection to Sodom in Genesis 18 is clear.

⁴ We have papers on each of the Feasts of the LORD on Page 4 PROPHECY of our website.

To assist in following the prophetic threads: historical events recorded in the Book of the Acts of the Apostles are colored Black, future prophetic fulfillments in Christians are colored Green, future prophetic fulfillments in Jews are colored Blue, and future prophetic events are colored Red.

 - ix. Peter and John Say 'Repent and Be Converted...' (Message Spreads)

⁵ 'Own People' cannot refer to Jews on Earth because none of them repent until after the Two Witnesses are killed, rise from the dead, and ascend directly to Heaven. So, we take it 'Own People' refer to Christians in Heaven.

⁶ The Promised Land belongs to the Seed of Abraham, who is the Messiah (Gal. 3:16). As children of God through faith in Jesus Christ, Christians are reckoned to be 'in the Seed' (Gal. 3:29) and are heirs of the promise, in other words, co-owners of his possessions, which include the Promised Land. The Jews rejected Christ. By doing so, they forfeited their claim to his property. In the Millennium the Promised Land will be divided among Christians. Tribulation Jews who are resurrected in the Millennium will be the 'guests to the wedding feast': they will live in the Promised Land in rented homes, not as owners.

However, if our interpretation is correct, there will also be a revival of true faith in America in the Last Days.

TWO GOATS OF THE DAY OF ATONEMENT

Paul is a prophetic fulfillment of the scapegoat on the Day of Atonement (see Leviticus 16). However, Paul is not the only prophetic fulfillment of the scapegoat. The 144,000 witnesses are also a prophetic fulfillment of the scapegoat on the Day of Atonement. We will explain.

Paul (the scapegoat) continues and fulfills the ministry of Christ (sacrificial goat), whose life was cut short at the Cross. He is a goat (Hebrew), who is cursed by the High Priest of the Jews (places both hands on his head), set free in the wilderness (preaches to the Gentiles), and guided there by the 'hand of a man appointed for the task' (personally guarded by the Son of Man, the Lord Jesus himself).

Now for the amazing revelation! The 144,000 witnesses (scapegoats) fulfill the ministry of Stephen!

Paul was present at the stoning of Stephen. He did not throw a stone but was consenting to Stephen's death. Paul represents the 144,000 pious Jews who are witnesses of the mass martyrdom of Gentile Christians (Stephen) at the end of the Age of Grace. Just as Paul was converted on the road to Damascus, the 144,000 witnesses will convert and follow Christ. The same conviction of sin that came upon Paul ('Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?') will come upon the 144,000. They will recognize in the holy way Stephen dies ('Lord, hold not this sin against them') the spirit of Jesus Christ who meekly went to his cross ('Father forgive them, they know not what they do').

But Stephen was not a goat! Yes, but the Spirit of Christ was in Stephen, and Christ was a goat!

John describes the 144,000 witnesses: 'have the Father's name written on their foreheads' (Jews); 'they sang a new song' (not the old gospel of the Age of Grace to Gentiles of forgiveness of sin and righteousness by faith in Christ; the new gospel of the Great Tribulation to Gentiles warning them not to take the mark of the Beast in order that they might survive and live into the Millennium); 'no one could learn the song except the 144,000' (each one personally selected by Christ [Rev. 7:1-8] for their important mission); 'those who did not defile themselves with women, for they kept themselves pure' (like Paul, a virgin); 'they follow the Lamb wherever he goes' (like a tethered goat led about by the hand of a man); 'no lie was found in their mouths, they are blameless' (like Paul, according to the Law, as to obedience in the flesh, they were perfect).

So, when we look at the life of Paul we see how powerful will be the ministry of the 144,000 witnesses! Imagine the Mediterranean world crawling with 144,000 indestructible evangelists! Glory to God!

If the High Priest of the Jews had known that the crucifixion of Jesus would lead to the conversion of Saul and the preaching of the gospel to the Gentiles resulting ultimately in the obedience of hundreds of millions of Christians to faith in Christ, and the destruction of the temple in Jerusalem, would he have authorized it?

If the High Priest of the Jews had known that the martyrdom of Christian saints at the end of the Age of Grace would lead to the sealing of 144,000 Jewish evangelists and the obedience of entire nations to Christ during the Great Tribulation, and the destruction of the harlot religious perversion of which he was the head, would he have authorized it?

Two goats! Two high priests! Two prophetic fulfillments: conversion of Saul (1st Century); conversion of 144,000 (Time of the End)!

All set before our eyes in the Books of the Acts of the Apostles:
