| Great Themes (Nines) | The nation under God was established to protect the rights of all citizens that there might be equality and justice for all. However, wicked rulers arise which do not fear God. Justice and human dignity disappears. | | | | | | | | | God brings calamity as a warning to the nation and to the rulers. Some who fear God repent back to his ways. But the rulers consolidate their power at the expense of the people. God executes judgment upon them. | | | | | | | | | As authority becomes corrupt - men lose all restraint. There are riots and no respect for law & order or life itself. Wickedness increases, spirituality declines: the heart of man grows cold. Yet, a small remnant of God fearers is sav | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |
