

PROPHETIC EDMON and BABYLON THE GREAT

INTRODUCTION

The paper will address prophetic 'Edom in the Last Days' – the Royal Rulers of Arabia – the protectors of Islam. 'Babylon in the Last Days' – a cult of Islam which operates independently of Sunni or Shia traditions – is not Edom. 'Babylon the Great' is also not Edom. But as we will see there are connections.

This will be a short paper based on Isaiah 34 – and will not touch on all the prophecies of Edom in Scripture.

We provide an in-depth gematria analysis of Isaiah 34 as an appendix to this paper for those who seek deeper understanding of the mind of God on Edom. The God of Heaven spoke of these last days long ago. Amazing!

LAST DAYS PROPHECY

What are the Last Days? We understand the Last Days to be the time in history after 1917 – the year of the Balfour Declaration – which set in motion the third and final return of the Jews to the Promised Land and with it all the prophecy in Scripture related to the Last Days – the time between 1917 and the Great Tribulation. Babylon the Great will be revealed only in the Great Tribulation. It will be different than Edom and, surprisingly, different than Babylon of the Last Days too.

BABYLON IN THE LAST DAYS

God says he will raise up Babylon in the Last Days to judge and destroy all the rest of the nations whose sins must be brought to account before the end comes: "I am raising up the Babylonians that ruthless and impetuous people who sweep across the whole earth to seize dwellings not their own" (Hab. 1:5-11). Idolatry in the church will be the root cause – just as idolatry in Judah sealed its fall to Babylon long ago.

We believe the spirit of Babylon in the Last Days is seen today in the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant. Please see our papers on page 4 Prophecy on our site if you wish to learn more about the identity of ISIS and core Bible prophecy of Islam.

THE PROPHETIC IDENTITY OF EDMOM

The nation of Edom was founded by Esau - who was the twin brother of Jacob (same father and mother). Esau is the closest possible blood relative to Jacob - a full brother. But there is no love lost between them.

Therefore, Esau was not an Arab. He was closer in blood to Jacob than to Ishmael - the father of the Arabs.

That historic Edom was not Arab ought not to surprise us since the Royal Rulers of Arabia today are not Arabs either (Genesis 25). The Royal Rulers of Arabia today are the house of Sheba who was the son of Keturah and Abraham. Ishmael was the son of Hagar and Abraham. Please see our paper 'Sons of Keturah' for the detailed historic and prophetic explanation.

This has happened often in history – when a royal family is of a different blood line than the people it rules. For example, the King of Moab in the time of Moses was descended from a family in Aram [modern Syria].

We can find many cultural parallels between Esau and the Royal Rulers of Arabia.

We will start with the basics. Edom means 'red' in Hebrew. What is the color of the tribal scarf worn by Saudis princes? You guessed it - red. This scarf is the traditional headdress of Jordan – which includes the ancestral territory of Edom. The Palestinians wear a black and white checked head scarf of the same pattern.

Isaiah 34 says this concerning the house of Edom in the Last Days:

"Edom's streams will be turned into pitch" (34 v. 9)

The ancient land of Edom began at the South end of the Salt Sea and continued on the East side of the rift valley all the way down to the modern Gulf of Aqaba. The valley of Edom benefited from the water run-off from the surrounding hills. This valuable water produced the grass which fed the deer and game that Esau loved to hunt. The lush pastures also fed the horses he rode. As his father Isaac said "The smell of my son is like the smell of a field that the LORD has blessed." (Gen. 27:27)

The green playground of Edom's native land was going to turn into a place of pitch - or tar - the original petroleum product out of the ground. Amazing! A direct connection between the Royal Rulers of the Arabs and oil - right in Isaiah 34!

Yes - but oil is everywhere. Oil is in the North Sea. Oil is in Siberia. Isaiah says the mountains, valleys, and streams of prophetic Edom will become a desert!

"She will become a haunt for jackals, a home for owls.

Desert creatures will meet with hyenas and wild goats will bleat to each other." (34 v. 13-14)

The house of Edom spiritually moved to the desert of Arabia and exerted lordship over the humble Arabs.

When we say 'the house of Edom spiritually moved to the desert'. How did this happen?

The original Edomites departed from their native land. The way they departed tells the story. When the Babylonians invaded Judah and captured Jerusalem the Jews who survived were exiled to Babylon in modern day Iraq. The Edomites greedily saw their chance and they occupied the historic lands which belonged to Judah (Obadiah 10-14). But Edomite occupied Judah was bound to serve the King of Babylon! (Jer. 25:11-12 and Jer.27:6-13). Thus the connection of Edom to Babylon is an enduring one. Later the Romans destroyed Jerusalem which resulted in the physical descendants of Edom being exiled - having no land whatsoever.

If the physical Edomites had wanted to return to their native land they could not do so. The land the Edomites vacated was settled by Nabataeans from Arabia! Early Nabataeans were distinguished from Arabs in that they worshipped stone blocks called 'god blocks' carved out of rock without adornment or markings. Their center of worship was Petra – right in the midst of the ancestral land of Edom. The spirit of the land of Edom was transferred to the tribes of Arabia through Nabataeans. The idolatrous religion of the Arabs would eventually be conquered by the worship of the faceless sacred stone god of Petra.

Because of lucrative trade and proximity to the Greek civilization the Nabataeans adopted foreign languages and practices. When we look at the Royal Rulers of the Arabs today we see how naturally they adopt western education and ways. Edom and Petra became a crossroads of trade in the whole region:

The caravan of all ages, from the interior of Arabia and from the Persian Gulf, from Hadhramaut on the ocean, and even from Sabea (Sheba) or Yemen, appear to have pointed to Petra as a common centre; and from Petra the tide seems again to have branched out in every direction, to Egypt, Palestine, and Syria, through Arsinoe, Gaza, Tyre, Jerusalem, and Damascus, and by other routes, terminating at the Mediterranean Sea. (source: Easton's Bible Dictionary)

The final missing link is how the center of Edom moved from Bozrah to Petra. Read carefully what the LORD said to Edom through Obadiah:

“This is what the Sovereign LORD says about Edom...

The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who live in the clefts of the rocks and make your home on the heights, you who say to yourself ‘Who can bring me down to the ground? Though you soar like the eagle and make your nest among the stars, from there I will bring you down.’”

The historic center of Edom was Bozrah. Along with other historic cities of Edom, Bozrah was located in foothills, in open rolling pastures and fields. Originally Edom was not a cave dweller. See the picture:

Ruins of the acropolis of Bozrah

Obadiah lived in the days of Ahab (1 Kings 18:3-4) [~880BC]. Edom had been a vassal state of Judah since their defeat by David (1 Sam 14:47) [~1000BC]. Later the Edomites regrouped in a mountain stronghold called Sela (Petra). This is how the center of Edom switched from Bozrah in the hills to Petra – a city etched out of the rocks. Obadiah's prophecy was fulfilled when Amaziah King of Judah defeated 10,000 Edomites in the Valley of Salt and took Petra (2 Kings 14:7) [~770BC]. Note how the elevated 'stars' of Edom fell to the earth!

Have you ever noticed the difference between Arabs and their rulers? Arabs of the desert use camels for carting goods over a distance. Only wealthy rulers can afford horses – useless in the desert for packing - an animal which belongs in a land of grassy streams well adapted for chasing game!

Arabian horse – with royal rider

Arab camel at work – a pack animal

Will prophetic Edom dwell in a desert as a waif? Or will prophetic Edom be wealthy beyond measure?

What do wealthy people do? They eat like kings! The appetite of the princes of Arabia for the finest meat was insatiable. In the Book of Ezekiel it lists the goods each of the nations imported and what they exported.

"Arabia and all the princes of Kedar [a son of Ishmael - the original inhabitants of Arabia - Arabs] were your customers; they did business with you in lambs, rams, and goats." (Eze. 21)

Remarkably it does not say in Ezekiel that the princes of the Arabs traded anything in return for those imports. Why? Because rich men don't trade - they pay with silver. Rich beyond all measure they will be.

"The Sword of the LORD is bathed in blood, it is covered with fat - the blood of lambs and goats, and the fat from the kidneys of rams." (34 v. 6)

The word 'fat' is used three times in the prophecy of Isaiah 34. Of course, 'fat' has always been associated with rich people. The humble and hardy Arab must walk daily to the well for water. But the luxurious Sheik of the Arabs lies on his pillows in his tent - he will gain weight from eating endless supplies of fine foods.

Look at the wealthy oil-rich Royal Rulers of Arabia today. Too many are fat from overeating rich food - and not performing a day of physical labor in their lives to burn off those calories.

Please forgive us if this may come as a gross insult to the reader who may be a follower of Islam – our intention is not to insult your religion - but we fail our duty to see all the parallels in this typology if we miss the mockery of Edom's religious practices.

Isaiah proclaims to Edom:

"Look in the Scroll of the LORD and read..." (34 v. 16)

This is what Esau would never do. First, in his eternal enmity for his brother Jacob - he could not humble himself to study the words of Jewish prophets. Second, he believes he has his own holy book from God.

"For the LORD has a day of vengeance, a year of retribution for Zion's cause..." (34 v. 8)

Who is possessed of a spirit of vengeance more than Edom! Surely this phrase of Isaiah puts the stick to the nose of Edom. It is written concerning Edom:

"Because Edom took revenge on the house of Judah and became very guilty by doing so..." (Eze. 25:12)

This occurred when the Babylonians attacked Jerusalem. Edom joined in the slaughter of their brother Jews at their point of greatest weakness - as they fled from the city they were cut down (Obadiah 10-14)

What does Isaiah say about the future of these desert sheiks?

"For the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah and a great slaughter in Edom." (34 v. 6)

The Edomites endlessly slaughtered and gorged the choicest meats. One day God will slaughter them!

The last half of Isaiah 34 speaks at length regarding the unclean animals that will dwell in Edom: desert owls, screech owls, great owls, ravens, jackals, hyenas, and so on.

"The owl will nest there and lay she will hatch them, and care for her young under her shadow (of her wing)" (34 v. 15)

Isaiah prophesies that children of darkness, born under the shadow of the owl's wing, will hatch, in a nest in Edom. The idiom of reptilian hatching suggests the coldest of cold hearts – no father or mother.

"Desert creatures will meet with hyenas... there the night creatures will repose and find for themselves places of rest" (34 v. 14)

The destiny of Edom - the wealthy Royal Rulers of the Arabs - is they will sponsor - protector – nourish and nurture dark personalities of the desert - the hunting birds - the vicious ravening fanged dogs of the desert – what have you. To this day falconry is the cherished sport of the Saudi elite.

Isaiah says Edom will be the sponsor of terror. Maybe Edom hasn't fulfilled that destiny yet. Maybe it has. But when Edom does this - and releases these violent killers into the world after feeding them on bloodlust and raising them on a spirit of killing your brother - the LORD will recompense this evil back into their laps:

All her oil wells set on fire:

"...her land will become blazing pitch!" (34 v. 9)

All her children slain:

"The sword of the LORD is bathed in blood.. the wild oxen will fall... along with the bull calves (children of the rulers)" (34 v 7)

All her defenses demolished:

"Thorns will overrun her citadels nettles and brambles her strongholds" (34 v. 13)

All her cities and communities scattered:

"Her nobles will have nothing there to call a kingdom" (34 v. 12 a)

Finally - all the descendants of Esau will perish

"...all her princes will vanish away" (34 v. 12 b)

THE PROPHETIC TIME LINE

When will all this happen? When will Edom fall? We believe Edom will be the last kingdom to fall before the end comes – the Great Tribulation.

Revelations is the standard by which we measure the prophetic order of events in the Last Days and in the Great Tribulation. By the gracious gift of God – all the prophecies of Revelations are in strict chronological order. The events of the Last Days are described in Revelation 4, 5 and 6 concerning the opening of the seven seals: the period of time from the Great Falling Away to the Rapture. Readers may wish to read our paper on the Seven Seals of Revelation before continuing further here.

This is what Revelations 6 says happens at the very end of the Last Days prior to the Rapture:

"I watched as he opened the 6th seal
There was a great earthquake
The sun turned black like sackcloth made of goat hair the whole moon turned blood red and the stars fell to earth as late figs drop from a fig tree

when shaken by a strong wind
The sky receded like a scroll rolling up and every mountain and island was removed from its place."

Sum it up: DARKNESS - COMPLETE SPIRITUAL DARKNESS.

The sun - a type of the Holy Spirit - blacked out - gone

The moon - a type of all religions - full of blood - all members dead

The stars - a type of spiritual guidance - nothing left on earth for men to go by

The fig tree - the earliest concept of God - shaken - every fig lost

The sky - the earliest concept of a Creator - rolled up

The world is descending into the deepest darkness – the pure occult of the Great Tribulation.

The last words:

"Every mountain and island
was removed from its place."

In those last days every nation, every religion will be "removed from its place" - in other words - they will be nothing - of no effect - no members - no adherents - no leaders - no followers - no assemblies.

The US, Russia, Israel, Persia - all will be gone (although people will remain in those historic lands)

The Catholic Church, Protestant Church, Sunni Islam, Shia Islam - all will be gone

Only the PUREST OCCULT religion will emerge from all these ashes.

All the institutions and nations in the world today have a good side and a bad side - faults for which God judges them. But they are not Babylon the Great - which is pure occult religion – possessing no virtue at all.

Edom will be the last man standing in the time of the end. But – finally they too must fall in order for complete darkness to be ushered in.

Isaiah describes the end in chapter 34. Note the language parallels to the words in Rev. 6 quoted above.

"Come near you nations and listen!
pay attention you peoples!

The LORD is angry with ALL nations his wrath is upon ALL their armies

He will totally destroy [ALL of] them
He will give [ALL of] them over to slaughter

ALL the stars of the heavens will be dissolved and the sky rolled up like a scroll

ALL the [starry] host will fall like withered leaves from the vine like shriveled figs from the fig tree."

Once the LORD finishes the judgment of the nations He turns to the last man standing which is Edom.

"My sword has drunk its fill in the heavens see, it descends in judgment upon Edom"

"For the LORD has a day of vengeance, a year of retribution to uphold Zion's cause"

Important to understand – Edom of the Last Days will not be judged for the sin of historic Edom during the Fall of Jerusalem in the days of Jeremiah when Jews were slaughtered on the roads as they fled the temple.

Edom of the Last Days will be judged for its own sins. As we pointed out above – their sin will be nursing and releasing dark personalities of the night - the hunting birds - the vicious ravening fanged dogs of the desert.

Was Edom the nursery for Al Qaeda? Was Edom the nursery for Wahhabi teaching which some believe is responsible for the ill winds blowing along the radical jihadi mindset of ISIS? We don't have answers to those questions. But Edom will be responsible for nursing a hideous evil and for that she will pay.

"Edom's streams will be turned into pitch her dust into burning sulfur her land will become a blazing pitch!"

Saudi Arabia will go up in the smoke of oil fires.

"It will not be quenched day and night- its smoke will rise forever - no one will ever pass through it again."

Islam will be finished - no Mecca – no place for a Moslem to turn towards in prayer. The hajj will cease. No one will go to Arabia for pilgrimage - it will be a place of perpetually burning – no one can pass through.

In a mysterious way which this author cannot explain – the Babylon of the Last Days – which holds to an interpretation of Islam – will morph into Babylon the Great – the pure occult religion. As barbaric as ISIS might appear to Western eyes – ISIS still follows rules and precepts grounded in Islam. Babylon the Great will follow no rules – it will be lawlessness. The means of transition from one to the other is not plainly obvious.

Nevertheless, the end will come: All nations – gone, all religions – gone, Holy Spirit on earth – gone.

The Great Tribulation begins. Babylon the Great is revealed.

FURTHER MEDITATIONS

Why will Edom fall last? The answer is not what you think. The Bible says 'Jacob I have loved and Esau I have hated'. But under oath Jacob said 'I am Esau'. And so Jacob inherited Esau's curses and Esau inherited the life of a prince on this earth – mostly undisturbed for over a millennia. See our paper here.

We date the birth of Esau at 2013 BC. We date the defeat of Edom by David after 1017 BC. Therefore Edom did indeed enjoy a whole millennium ruling and enjoying their native land. For a detailed analysis of the dates of the births and reigns of the patriarchs and the kings of Judah and Israel – see our paper on Time in the Bible.

Isaiah prophesied in the reign of Hezekiah which we date at approximately 684 BC. Oil was not discovered in Saudi Arabia until 1938. This is a span of over 2600 years! Does anyone doubt that the author of the Scriptures of the Jews and Christians is Almighty God? Who else but the Living God could have predicted all these details of prophetic Edom in the Last Days?

When Christ died on the Cross – he bore all the curses. When He rose victorious from the grave – he received all the blessings – so that at the appropriate time in the future all overcoming believers in Christ – the ones who do not allow themselves to shame the Cross by falling back into religion - will inherit princely blessing on this earth – along with Christ when He returns to rule and reign in the Millennium.
