SPIRITUAL NUMBERS: 388 THROUGH 422

THEME 31: FAMILY OF ONE GOD (TRUE SAINTS STRUGGLE WITH IMPOSTERS)

What a minefield the born-again believer must navigate! So many "graces of worship" exist to promote a temple. A few examples of a selfish Christian fellowship: the Cross of Christ is preached AND admission to worship is free. Sincere believers are confused and the church is not blessed. The following tables and numbers help us navigate the minefield by focusing on the hope that is in Christ, and His ability to correct us, and His ability to bless us. Here are some of the more prominent tables.

THEME 32: FELLOWSHIP (STRANGERS IN OUR OWN LAND)

Fellowship in the Body of Christ is a high calling, and one that is often not fulfilled. Men are called to fellowship with one another in the Name of Jesus. The early church passed through many stages, and the church today is similar to the early church in many ways. We have many similarities to the early church in our struggles, our clashes with the world, and our conflicts within the body. As we look at the tables below, please keep in mind what the early church endured and what the early church went through to build a body that would remain true to the teachings of Jesus.

THEME 33: SCATTERED REMNANT (COVENANT OF LOVE)

The Kingdom of God is our heart guides us away from the bitterest imposters: religious, the rule of men. Saints sacrifice to serve one another, boldly by God's teaching: they have no need for man to rule over them.

SUFFERING (401-444)

The saints of the first century were scattered and suffering. Many were persecuted, and many were martyred. The saints were called to suffer for the cause of Christ, and they were called to suffer for the cause of the kingdom of God. The following tables help us understand the suffering of the saints of the first century, and how they were able to remain true to the teachings of Jesus.

NEIGHBORS (445-488)

The saints of the first century were called to be neighbors to one another. The saints were called to be kind to one another, and to be helpful to one another. The following tables help us understand the call to be neighbors to one another, and how the saints were able to remain true to the teachings of Jesus.

THEME 34:größe (541-584)

The saints of the first century were called to be lights in the world. The saints were called to be witnesses to the world, and to be lights in the darkness. The following tables help us understand the call to be lights in the world, and how the saints were able to remain true to the teachings of Jesus.

THEME 35: SPIRITUAL VITALITY (585-628)

The saints of the first century were called to be vital in their faith. The saints were called to be alive in their faith, and to be alive in their service to the Lord. The following tables help us understand the call to be vital in our faith, and how the saints were able to remain true to the teachings of Jesus.

THEME 36: RELATIONAL VITALITY (629-672)

The saints of the first century were called to be relational. The saints were called to be relational with one another, and to be relational with the world. The following tables help us understand the call to be relational, and how the saints were able to remain true to the teachings of Jesus.

THEME 37: VITALITY IN WITNESS (673-716)

The saints of the first century were called to be witnesses to the world. The saints were called to be witnesses to the gospel, and to be witnesses to the kingdom of God. The following tables help us understand the call to be witnesses to the world, and how the saints were able to remain true to the teachings of Jesus.

THEME 38: AIMING FOR THE MISSION (717-760)

The saints of the first century were called to be missionaries. The saints were called to be sent out to the nations, and to be sent out to the world. The following tables help us understand the call to be missionaries, and how the saints were able to remain true to the teachings of Jesus.

THEME 39: THE MISSION (761-804)

The saints of the first century were called to the mission of the gospel. The saints were called to be sent out to the nations, and to be sent out to the world. The following tables help us understand the call to the mission of the gospel, and how the saints were able to remain true to the teachings of Jesus.

THEME 40: THE MISSION (805-848)

The saints of the first century were called to the mission of the gospel. The saints were called to be sent out to the nations, and to be sent out to the world. The following tables help us understand the call to the mission of the gospel, and how the saints were able to remain true to the teachings of Jesus.

THEME 41: THE MISSION (849-892)

The saints of the first century were called to the mission of the gospel. The saints were called to be sent out to the nations, and to be sent out to the world. The following tables help us understand the call to the mission of the gospel, and how the saints were able to remain true to the teachings of Jesus.

THEME 42: THE MISSION (893-936)

The saints of the first century were called to the mission of the gospel. The saints were called to be sent out to the nations, and to be sent out to the world. The following tables help us understand the call to the mission of the gospel, and how the saints were able to remain true to the teachings of Jesus.
