| Great Themes (Nines)    | Triumph at last. After all the struggle through history between the true faithful witnesses and those who persecute them, the humble servants of God are exalted and honored forever and the proud enemies of God are shamed and destroyed forever.  |         |         |             |          |         |                       |         |         | Everything men esteem the suffering servant does not have: popularity, possessions, power, posterity, and peace. Yet, everything God esteems the suffering servant has: patience, perseverance, pardon for sin, and perspicacity.   |       |        |                   |        |        | When Man is held up as greatness in the universe, an insult flies in the face of God, who destroys all who are Holy Men bow before God. They accept suffering in this life, knowing resurrection and peace comes in the next.   |        |        |                         |        |        |                             |        |        |                 |  |  |  |

| PERFECT THINGS          | And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying 'Now the dwelling of God is with men, and he will live with them. They will be his people.. He will be their God. He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain. I saw the Holy City, the New Jerusalem coming down out of heaven, prepared as a bride, beautifully dressed for her husband. But the cowardly, the unbelieving, the vile, the murderers, the sexually immoral, those who practice magic arts, the idolators, and all liars - their place will be in the fiery lake of burning sulfur. This is the second death. The king's edict granted the Jews in every city the right to assemble themselves and protect themselves; to destroy, to kill, and annihilate any armed force of any nationality that might attack them and their women and children and to plunder the property of their enemies. 'Does Job fear God for nothing?' 'Have you not put a hedge around him and his house and everything he has? ... But stretch out your hand and strike everything he has and he will curse you...' 'Skin for skin!' Satan said. A man will give all he has for his own life... but strike his flesh and bones and he will curse you...' Your beginnings will seem humble so prosperous will your future be. He is like a well watered plant in sunshine, spreading its shoots over the garden; God will yet fill your mouth with laughter and your lips with shouts of joy; Your enemies will be clothed in shame, and the tents of the wicked will be no more. You gave me life and showed me kindness; and in your providence watched over my spirit. |         |         |             |          |         |                       |         |         | [Right of Self-Defense Granted] The Jews assembled in their provinces to attack those seeking their destruction. ...the people of the other nationalities were afraid. They killed 75,000 of them... [Instigating Violence] The king's edict granted the Jews in every city the right to assemble themselves and protect themselves; to destroy, to kill, and annihilate any armed force of any nationality that might attack them and their women and children and to plunder the property of their enemies. 'Does Job fear God for nothing?' Which of these does not know that the hand of the LORD has done all this? In his hand is the life of every creature and the breath of all mankind. Though he slay me, yet will I hope in him. I know that my Redeemer lives! And on the earth again shall stand After my skin has been destroyed yet in my flesh I will see God. I myself will see him with my own eyes - I, not another How my heart yearns in me! Is not God in heaven? And see how lofty are the highest stars? Submit to God and be at peace with him; Accept instruction from his mouth and lay up words in your heart. If you return to the Almighty you will be restored; If you remove wickedness far from your tent and assign your nuggets to the dust... then the Almighty will be your gold You will pray to him and he will hear you, and you will fulfill your vows. |        |        |                         |        |        |                             |        |        |                 |  |  |  |
| SINFUL THINGS           | After this I looked and there before me was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation tribe, people and language, standing before the throne and before the Lamb. They were wearing white robes and were holding palm branches in their hands... And they cried out in a loud voice: Salvation belongs to our God, who sits upon the throne, and to the Lamb. All the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures They fell down on their faces.. I second angel followed and said: 'Fallen! Fallen is Babylon the Great, which made all the nations drink the maddening wine of her adulteries. A third angel followed them and said: 'If anyone worships the beast and his image and receives the mark on the forehead or on the hand, he, too, will drink of the wine of God's fury, which has been poured full strength into the cup of his wrath. He will be tormented with burning sulfur in the presence of the holy angels and of the Lamb.  |         |         |             |          |         |                       |         |         | King Xerxes imposed tribute throughout the empire to its distant shores. And all the acts of power and might of Mordecai are written in the annals of Media and Persia What is man... that you examine him every morning and test him every moment? Will you never look away for an instant? God does not restrain his anger... How then can I dispute with him? If I summoned him... I do not believe he would give me a hearing. He would crush me and multiply my wounds for no reason.   |       |        |                   |        |        | Oh how I wish that God would speak, that he would open his lips. I have a mind as well as you; I am not inferior to you. Grant me two things O God and then I will not hide from you.. Oh how I wish that God would speak, that he would open his lips. I have a mind as well as you; I am not inferior to you. Grant me two things O God and then I will not hide from you.. Who can see hope for me? Where then is my hope? Who can see hope for me? Where then is my hope? [Dismissing God: A Grievous Error] Though his pride reaches to the heavens and his head touches the clouds he will perish forever... The wicked spend their years in prosperity and peace yet they say to God 'Leave us alone!'   |        |        |                         |        |        |                             |        |        |                 |  |  |  |
