

30TH ERA (1050 – 1001 BC): 30TH SIGN CASSEIOPIA “FREE WOMAN: QUEEN OF HEAVEN”STAR PROPHECY

The bright star near the left breast is Shedar: “The Freed”. Cassiopeia is a Free Woman.

The star Caph: “The Branch” comes from the Hebrew word used in the Bible to describe the branches used to make booths in the feast of Succoth (Lev 23:40-41). Cassiopeia is holding a branch in her right hand (beginning of dynasty?)

In the picture (to the left) the feet are at the top left and the head is at the bottom right. The ancient Dendera pictured her as “A Gazelle” lying beside Cephus. The gazelle is a ‘clean’ animal related to sheep and is a symbol of freedom, gentleness, and everlasting love (Songs 2:9, 17).

The Arabs called her “The Enthroned” and other ancients called her “The Daughter of Splendor”.

Cassiopeia is a Queen. She is the Queen of Heaven whom the Israelites worshipped and of whom Jeremiah complained bitterly (Jer. 7v 18)

Some of the wives of Solomon led his heart astray and he set up altars to foreign gods. The sign is about the righteous wives of Solomon, not the wicked wives who worshipped of foreign gods.

HISTORICAL EVENTS

It is remarkable that the Song of Solomon, which speaks of Solomon’s love for the Shulemite, correctly places the reign of Solomon under the sign Caseio pia “Free Woman: Queen of Heaven”. It even describes Solomon as a gazelle ‘leaping on the hills’ and her breasts as ‘two fawns, twins of a gazelle’.

During his reign Solomon married many foreign women, wild gazelles, and showed forth the love of Messiah for all the peoples of the world.

These free women were elevated to the side of Solomon, the King of the Jews, a type of Jesus Christ, in spite the fact they were not Jewish. The Jews who worshiped in the Temple and kept the Laws of Moses were a type of Andromeda “Slave Women in Chains”.

The gospel of Jesus Christ is portrayed: whosoever loves the LORD with all their heart is qualified to be his bride, regardless of ethnicity. Furthermore, they were not subject to the Law of Moses. Truly free.
