

AD 1ST ERA (1 – 50 AD): 1ST SIGN VIRGO “SEED OF THE WOMAN”

STAR PROPHECY

The Hebrew name for the star sign is Bethulah which means “Virgin”. The picture is a woman holding a tree branch (pointed up) in her right hand and a sheaf of wheat (pointed down) in her left hand. Spica is the bright star in the left hand: it means “The Branch”. Zavijava in her left shoulder means “Gloriously Beautiful”. The star in the right hand is Vindemiatrix; it means “The Branch who comes”. The star Subilon means “Ear of Wheat”, Subilah means “Who Carries”. Virgo is reclining directly on the path of the Sun. The Sun enters from between Virgo’s feet and passes through her left shoulder. Mary said to the Angel who announced she would conceive and bear a son whom she would call Jesus: “How can this be since I do not know a man?”. The Angel said “the Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Highest will over-shadow you”. The miracle of the incarnation is suggested by the Sun passing between the legs of the Virgin. The birth of Jesus Christ fulfilled this prophecy. Jesus is the “Gloriously Beautiful” One who ‘over-shadows’ Mary. Worship of Mary is a gross error: a misreading of star prophecy.

HISTORICAL EVENTS

From the perspective of Secular History, the death of Jesus on the Cross is a mere footnote (a one liner in Josephus’ History of the Jews). But Jesus said “unless a Seed falls to the ground and dies... it cannot bear fruit” (harkening to the image of the Ear of Wheat in the left hand of Virgo pointed down to the Earth). So, although the death of Christ was barely noticed, believers in Christ grew into a community in Jerusalem after Pentecost (image above), then spread the faith throughout the Roman Empire.

Here is a key lesson in star prophecy: a star sign may portend events which are minor compared to the front page news of the day, but which in time are proven to be history changing.

When we come to apply star prophecy to the year or the era we occupy we don’t have the benefit of hindsight to see how the hand of God is working in Secular History. We must rely on the Holy Spirit to aid in interpretation.

God has so arranged it this way that prophecy will always be his special gift to believers.
